

TRANSCRIPTION OF CHANNELED MESSAGES FROM 5/27/17

- If I activate the magic in as many people as I can, think about how the world will be impacted.
- We are all like snowflakes, unique in our look, shape and magic. Together we can blanket the earth with our magic.
- Love is cascading out like fireworks over our skies: blooming, exploding, raining down.
- Art is available to all who tap into its vibration.
- Green is just a color in a certain frequency. What color frequency do you vibrate in?
- Blue becomes what you want it to become. Actually not just blue. Everything. Are you ready?
- White is clear. And purple. And incomplete. And complete. What isn't? We are only limited by what..... No, that was a question, because there is no answer. If you have an answer, then you are incomplete. As unlimited beings then you are complete. Or are you? ;)
- An apple can be modified. You can be modified. What are you waiting for?
- People vibrate. Their vibration can bring solace, healing, love, peace, whatever they choose.
- They are like magnets attracting what their vibration is.
- Magic is possible. It lives within us. It can attract more magic.

- Your vibration needs to be at the level of magic. In order to be at the level of magic, you have to believe in magic.
- The more magical your vibration, the more magic you will attract.
- Vibrate at the level of magic!
